

What Would You Like?

An Apostrophe Book

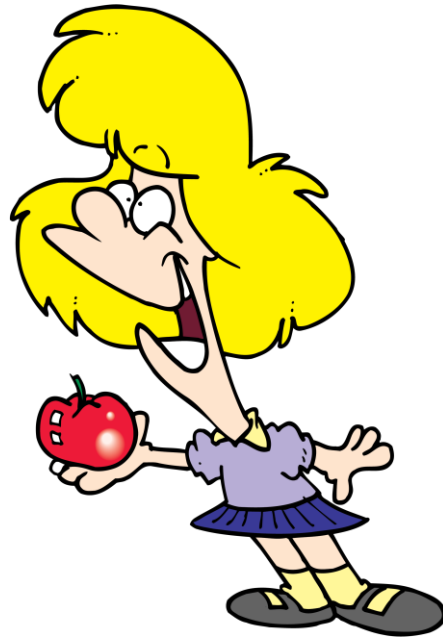

Written by Cherry Carl and Illustrated by Ron Leishman
Images©Toonaday.com/Toonclipart.com

What Would You Like?

An Apostrophe Book

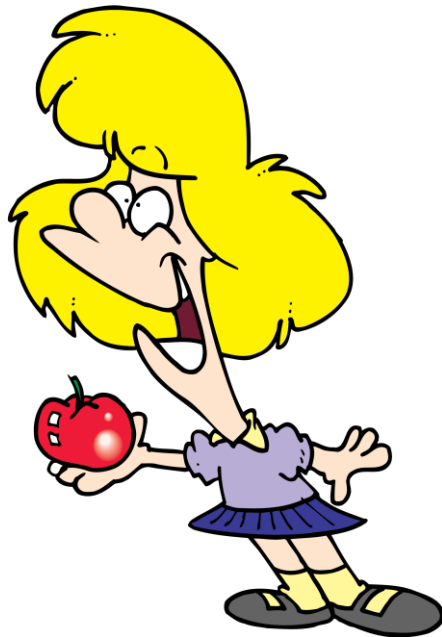

Written by Cherry Carl and Illustrated by Ron Leishman
Images©Toonaday.com/Toonclipart.com

I'd like an apple.

1

I'd like an apple.

1

I'll take watermelon.

2

I'll take watermelon.

2

It's popcorn for me!

It's popcorn for me!

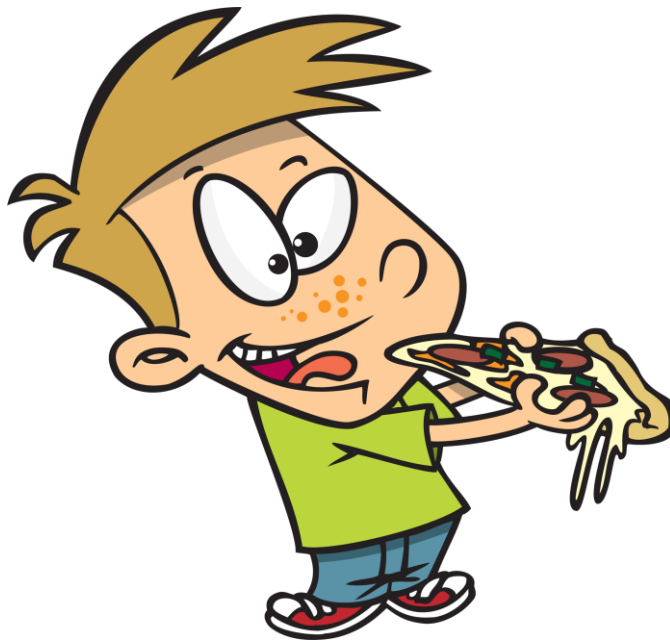

He's eating pancakes.

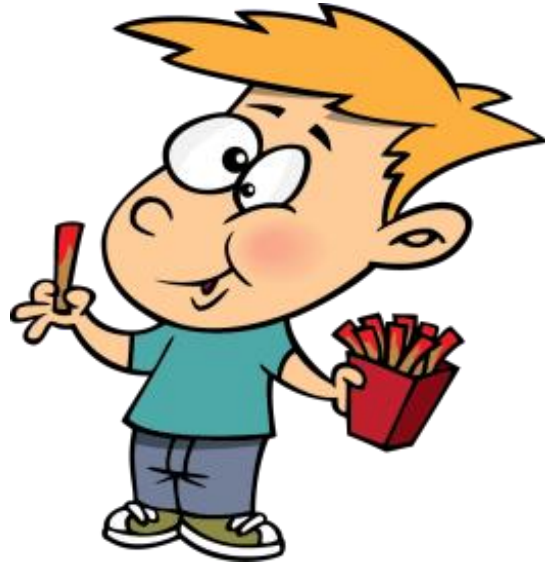

He's eating pancakes.

Who's eating pizza?

Who's eating pizza?

I can't eat just one!

I can't eat just one!

He's got a hotdog.

He's got a hotdog.

I'm crazy about ice cream!

I'm crazy about ice cream!

Cotton candy's sticky!

Cotton candy's sticky!

Don't you think I'm a mess?

10

Don't you think I'm a mess?

10

That's a lot of pasta!

11

That's a lot of pasta!

11

She's baking cookies.

12

She's baking cookies.

12

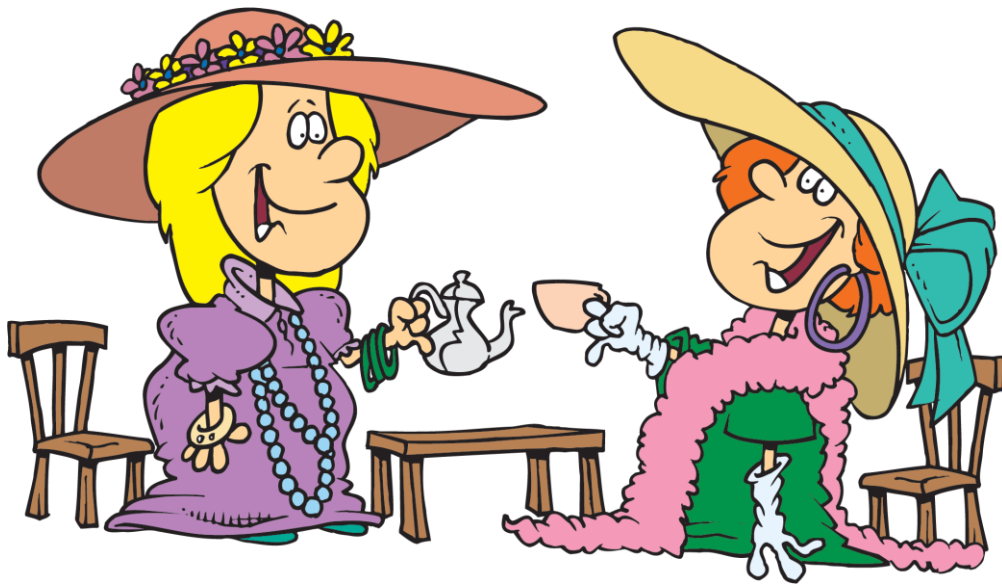

Here's my snack.

13

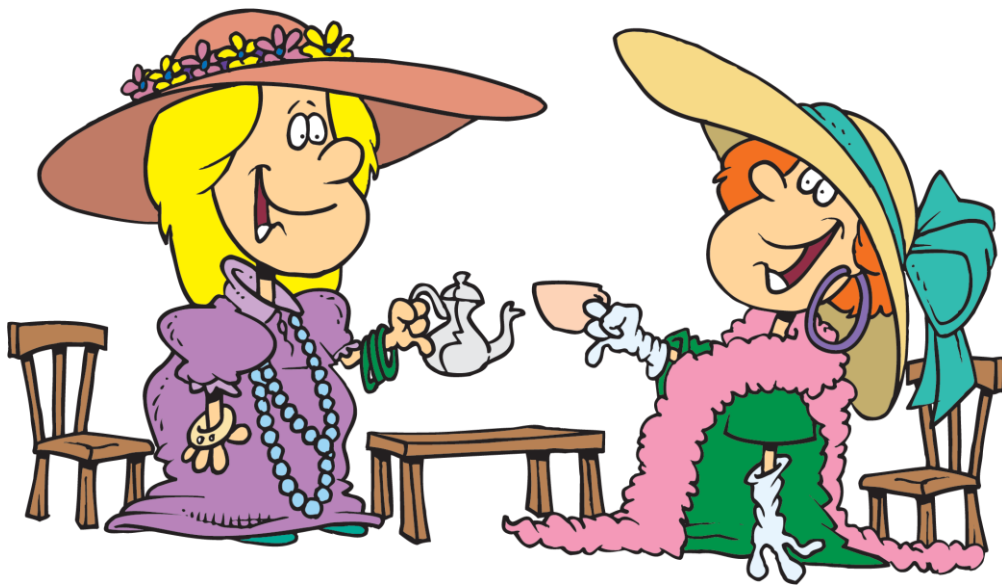

Here's my snack.

13

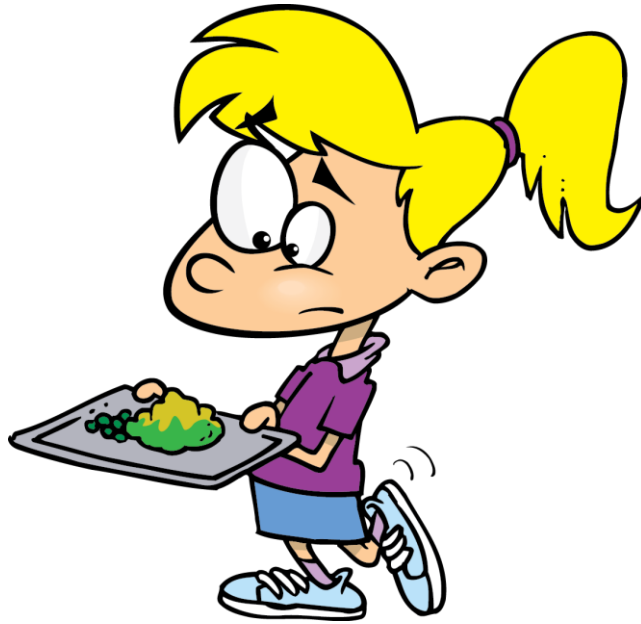

They're having a tea party.

14

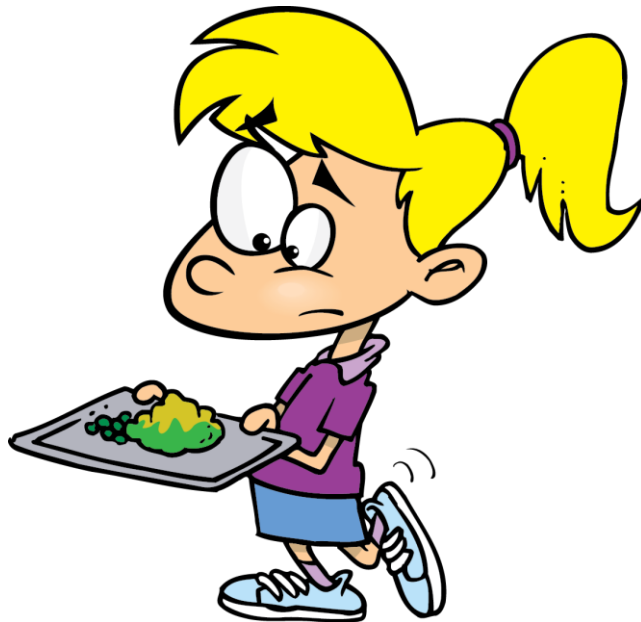

They're having a tea party.

14

Who'll sit by me for lunch?

15

Who'll sit by me for lunch?

15