

M is for Monkey!

Written by Cherry Carl

M is for monkey,

and m is for munch.

Mike and Mary have
bananas for lunch.

M is for math,
so much to do . . .

that someone left
some milk for you!

Missy puts a banana
in her mouth,

and Mickey sends e-mail
north and south!

This little monkey knows
what's ahead.

The moon is out and it's time for bed.

How many of these "m" words
can you find in the story?
